LEZBO LUST

Dear Game,
Do you guys know that you have some felame fans out here in the boondocks? Yeah, I'm lez all the way, and while I have a part-time lover who's still married to her scumbag boyfriend, I have a lot of lonely nights to deal with. I have a high sex urge too, and I find I have to climax at least once a day or I get hyper and can't concentrate at my typesetting job.

Anyway, I enjoy "visual aids" when I masturbate, and I buy a lot of the "girlie" type mags. Up until lately, I wasn't impressed by GAME, but you guys must be doing something right, because it looks much better lately. I was especially turned on by one layout and story in the August issue. It was called "Where's the Meat" and was about a group of gals on a picnic who get down on each other while they supposedly wait for guys to show up.

All I can say is that if I had been present at that picnic, those gals wouldn't have missed their "meat" at all. I loved the gals in the feature because they looked like real women. They weren't all skinny model types. Just like in real life, some of them were a bit overweight. But they were all sexy too, with big, hanging boobs and sexy bodies.

I fantasized especially about getting down with the big broad wearing the straw hat. She looked like a real raunchy piece of ass—just my type. Her fuckin' tits were huge, and I thought about how they'd feel pressing down on my face as I gobbled the shit out of them. I'd love to get down between that bitch's legs too, and slurp on her hot slit for hours, until my face was saturated with her hot, slippery juices.

I loved the photos of the broads smeared all over with white stuff—whipped cream, I guess. But as I looked at the photos and masturbated myself, I made believe that white stuff was hot, gooey female cum. I climaxed while staring at the picture of the blonde whose cunt was smeared all over with white stuff—and she was holding her pink-lipped hole open. Mmm, I'd sure like to get between her thighs and pig out on her pussy!

So, guys, run more spreads like that one, and you'll have all us horny dykes ready to play around with GAME every month!

—Bette G., Miami, FL

POPPIN' MAMA

Dear Game,
Hey, in your June issue, I love the girl who is lying down in the layout called "Penelope." Her tits are huge, and they got big, dark areolae the size of pancakes! I could pig out on those titties for hours, grabbing them, sucking them, rubbing my face in them. Meantime my hand would be busy jacking off my huge, throbbing boner until it shoots the goo all over the damn place!

You know at first I was so turned on by that big pair of tits that I didn't even realize something even more thrilling—the girl who is laying down in that layout while the other woman plays with her is pregnant! Yeah, you can see that her belly is all swelled up even when she is laying down. Yeah, in another few months that belly will be ready to pop one out—that is for damn sure.

I get very excited at photos of pregnant women. To me, there is nothing more sexy and womanly than a knocked-up broad with a belly-full and big teats that are ready to burst out milk. I have been with two women pregnant so far—and their condition got me so excited that I wanted to make love 24 hours per day. Their big bellies and swollen tits kept me hard all the time—and I wanted so much sex that they ended up throwing me out because they couldn't take any more sex. Finally one let me come back and we got along with me sucking and playing with her boobs while I jacked myself off. This was when she was too tired for fucking.

So I am asking you, please show more photos of women who are knocked up and have big swollen bellies and boobs. Until I meet another prego, I have to just jack off to them.

—Alfred B., Jamaica, NY

CUTE CAITLIN

Dear Game,
I loved the girl named Caitlin in your June issue—you know, the one from Wales with the big whopper boobs. The thing is, I could tell her titties were real, and they were so sweet and pale pink, as well as being big!

Caitlin was the perfect girl for me, because she looked innocent and yet sexy at the same time. Her face was so sweet and young, her eyes so big and round as she looked out from the pages, straight into my eyes. And then the ribbon in her hair added to the innocent effect. On the other hand, her shapely body was clad in naughty black lingerie—a black bra and garger belt, dark hosiery—and even black gloves.

"How much to spend a weekend in Virginia?"

Even though Caitlin didn't show any pink and you could hardly see her pussy at all, I shot my wad over and over again when I looked at her photos and masturbated. She looked evil and innocent at the same time—and that is my ideal woman! That poster blow-up of her was incredible—and it still adorns my bedroom wall.

—Ken B., St. Louis, MO

CUMMIN' FOR KELLY

Dear Game,

Man, that gal named Kelly in your August issue was something else! She was prime poon if I ever saw it. That stacked bod of hers got my cock up in an instant, and in no time at all I was left holding a handful of jizz.

Kelly is my private wet dream come true—young, blonde, shapely and not skinny, with big, upturning tits. Gosh, I would give anything to feast on her sweet pair. I'd be happy just kissing and squeezing and licking them for hours on end. Of course, I would love to be able to glom out on her sweet, blond-haired honeypot as well. I would slurp on both her holes until my mouth was satiated with fresh young juice and my hand was tired from miliing load after load from my 54-year-old but still active prick.

Yes, even at my age I fantasize about young 'n' yummy coeds. But there's certainly no crime in that—especially if I find my "sweet young things" on the pages of GAME. Keep 'em cumming, and I'll be a faithful fan for life.

—Thad B., San Francisco, CA

LATE NIGHT TIT PARTY

Dear Game,

I invited Susan back to my apartment after our late-night date. With my parents away for the week, I was anticipating a hot time that evening. Susan was dressed in a pair of blue jeans and a sheer T-shirt that did little to hide her stupendous 40-24-36 figure. We stopped in the living room long enough to watch twenty minutes of a VCR movie taped earlier, and sip a bit of wine. A drop of wine dripped on Susan's lip, so I leaned over and licked it off. She smiled back at me and proceeded to give me a long, sweet tongue kiss. Her hands roamed down towards my cock, which was now rock-hard with excitement.

She smiled wickedly and said "I will have a special treat for you later tonight." She got up and began doing a slow strip for me. Dancing to some background music coming from the VCR, she first proceeded to remove her sneakers and socks. Normally taking off one's socks and shoes does little to excite me, but the way she did it sent shivers through me. She then unbuckled her jeans and wiggled them down her hips. She peeled her jeans around her gorgeous legs and tossed them onto the couch next to me. Standing before me in T-shirt and panties, she danced to the music and slowly stroked her breasts with her hands. Susan rubbed her nipples right through the thin cotton shirt, making sure they stood outlined in cotton. She pulled down her panties and cast them aside. She resumed playing with her nipples to the music. She knew from my lovemaking that I loved to play with those massive breasts of hers, so she was saving the best for last, doing her darnedest to get me all steamed up. She threw back her head, closed her eyes, and rubbed.

Finally, she looked straight at me with an impish grin. She grabbed the edge of her T-shirt and began to pull it up. Slowly, she pulled up her shirt until it was up over her head. Her nipples, usually pink and soft, were now hard and cherry-red from all the finger play she gave herself. Susan looked down at her pride and joy and hefted them in her hands. She turned and walked into the bedroom, giving me a view of her great ass. I followed her into the bedroom to see her already stretched out on my bed. I climbed on top of her and gave her already-hard nipples a good sucking. She breathed in short, hot gasps of excitement as I worked on them. Her large breasts were even more sensitive to touch and stimulation—I had even made Susan come once with nipple stimulation only. Sh grasped me by the head and pulled me up to her eager mouth. I kissed and licked her neck, breasts, and abdomen, licking small trails down to her snatch, I positioned myself between her legs, parted her lips with my tongue, and went down on her. As I worked my tongue into her deeper and deeper, she gyrated her pelvis under me, forcing me to grip tighter on her ass. I tongued her out thoroughly, making sure I concentrated on her clit. As I felt it grow, I put my mouth right on it and sucked it, sending her into a violent orgasm. She squirmed under me as I strained to keep my mouth on her snatch. I just kept right on sucking until she couldn't stand it any more and begged me to stop.

I lay down next to her, watching her breasts rise and fall as she breathed deeply, recomposing herself. After a few moments, she rolled over on top of me and practically took out my tonsils with her tongue. She kissed me on the mouth, neck, and gradually licked her way south. My pole stood at attention, just waiting for her hungry mouth. She tongued me on the inside of my thighs and balls while she held me firmly by the cock. She then worked her tongue up my shaft right to the head. I played with her hair as she worked her mouth up and down, first very slowly, and then with increased speed. She slowed down just before I had a chance to come. Then she increased her speed again. She teased me like this for a while, stopped, and then got on her back. She held her breasts and looked at me. "Put your cock right there between my breasts, big boy." I climbed on top of her and did what she asked me. "Tit-fuck me."

Discovered on 42nd Street!
Carmen

I guess all of us red-blooded heteros have an eye out for a big pair of knockers a lot of the time. But when we spot a stupendous set, what is there to do about it other than to feast our eyes on it—and maybe fist ourselves off later on at the mammoth mammary memory.

But at least one guy at GAME's New York office not only got an eyeful of mammoth mammary—he also acted on his find so that all of us ended up being able to eye-ball this big 'n' bouncy set of boobs. Our titty talent scout's name is Juan, and he's the head of the mailroom. He spotted Carmen at his favorite lunch-time haunt—a peep-show arcade on New York's notorious 42nd Street.

"First I go to Bojangles, my favorite chicken place," Juan said eagerly, "and then I stop in at Peep-show Palace. You buy slugs, and then you can either watch X-rated flicks in private booths, or you can go into the glass booths where a curtain raises up so you can see and talk to a half-naked live girl.

"As soon as I laid eyes on Carmen I knew she was new. She was so friendly, and all the other booth girls are so nasty—unless you keep dropping slugs in the slot. Carmen was so sweet, and so pretty, and her titties were so large and so fresh-looking. I just knew my boss at GAME would be interested in meeting and photographing this big-titted, sensuous-looking girl."

Juan's perception of Carmen as a potential GAME girl was so right-on that we have augmented both his salary and his status at GAME. Now Juan works in the mailroom only half the day. The rest of his time is spent cruising the Times Square area for beautiful, big-breasted girls like Carmen. Needless to say, Juan is tickled pink—especially since he gets a "finder's fee" for every big-titted piece of tail he brings to us who is deemed photogenic enough to show it all in GAME.

Feasting your eyes on Carmen, our "talent scout's" first catch, wouldn't you say he deserves a big bonus...if not two of them?

"We'll let you in on a little secret. Not only is Carmen fresh and pretty-looking with a big set of boobs—she also gives the best head in Times Square!"

GAME Presents

BIZARRE EXPERIENCES

The Busty Eleven

We've got a good defense, she almost fills the entire space between the post, so the opposition is going to have one hell of a job actually getting the ball into the End Zone. In fact, if they shoot she'll probably have an orgasm because there is nothing Mrs. Andrews likes more than a football hit hard against her bludgeonous nipples! I was watching the referee trying to make up his mind whether to book her for time-wasting or to masturbate, when, at the last play she spent over five minutes standing there, oblivious of the game, rubbing the ball firmly against her breasts. I didn't think twice but came in my shorts; it's getting to be an occupational hazard.

Maybe I'd better explain. I live in a small town where the entertainment is strictly home-produced. No movies, few bars and a nightlife that consists of Mr. MacGregor's burger barn open Tuesday and Thursday evenings, can produce an overwhelming sense of ennui. Most towns seem to replace nocturnal entertainment with an extravagant amount of gossip, with the occasional bit of wife-swapping thrown in for luck. Ours did nothing—until a few weeks ago.

I moved to the town about two years ago and it took me some while to settle in, owing to a certain local hostility to a habit of mine of gardening in the nude. For a long time people wouldn't speak to me but watched me, I'm sure of that. Then slowly, things got more friendly. There are an exceptional amount of pretty women in the town and I think they liked what they saw because they soon started coming round when I wasn't in the garden.

I was very cautious at first about making any relationships because the men of small towns tend to get very possessive about their women. However, one night there was a knock on my door and Liza Potter was there asking about how much sugar I had. I knew that at eleven o'clock at night you just don't care how much sugar your neighbor has but I invited her in and we soon got friendly—very friendly. She was really something in bed and she had enormous knockers that she loved to jiggle about at every opportunity. Also she was into sucking her own tits which I found incredibly erotic.

Liza and I continued our unemotional but very randy relationship until about seven weeks ago when she started an utterly unbelievable conversation. We were both naked on the bed and she was casually squeezing her tits on my just come penis when she said:

"Are you into sport, Robert?"

Seeing as I was on the point of orgasm I found her question highly irrelevant to my more pressing needs, so I didn't answer. She carried on rubbing me, hardly noticing the jet of sperm decorating her tits as I dropped my load on her ample breasts, and then she pursued her train of thought.

"You see, I've been talking with the girls and we've decided to start a football team and we want you to be a manager."

Well, that did make me take notice.

"Who'll you play?" was my first random question.

"Anyone," she said. "We're going to make money out of it. People will want to play us, especially men, because we're going to have something that no other team has."

"What's that?" I asked.

"Tits," she said proudly. "The biggest tits we can get. That's one reason we want you. All the girls want to play but we've agreed that selection will depend not on skill but on tit size. To avoid cheating we decided that you are going to be the measurer, and once we've got the team, you can teach us a little about the actual game."

I was staggered but I accepted the offer! I couldn't really believe that the whole thing wasn't a joke, but anyway I agreed that the interested women could meet at my house the following day.

Thirty-five of them arrived at eight in the evening. It worried me because I suspected that a lynching party of jealous men would soon follow, but Liza promised that the men believed that all the women had gone to a showing of "Under Milk Wood" at the city'ys repertory theatre, so I relaxed a little, for a while.

For a short while!

The women seemed to take up just about all the room in my house as they investigated my belongings, gossiped non-stop, and talked excitedly about their new careers as footballers. Then Liza called for their attention.

"O.K. everybody. It's time to be measured. Take off your upper garments."

My erection almost hit the ceiling as my eyes desocketed themselves trying to cope with the vision of seventy breasts suddenly revealing their glories in my previously humble cottage.

The girls seemed to have no embarrassment at all. Liza was the first to get her bra off and she came and stood beside me, nonchalantly dropping her hand so that it rubbed against my tool which was in great danger of destroying the stitching on my trousers which hadn't been designed to withstand such force.

Soon I was immersed in tit flesh and I had no idea which breast belonged to who as my senses were assaulted by a variety of nipples and bosoms all forcing their way either into my mouth or trying to surround my throbbing penis with their bountiful goodness.

"Don't," I said. Liza just giggled and pressed herself against me. It was such a crush in there that there was no way I could move out of her reach without knocking into someone else's knockers! The whole room, the whole house, was quivering with tit flesh. I couldn't hold out for more than a few seconds and I felt my come rushing into my pants with inelegant spasms of delight.

"Robert's come in his pants!" shouted Liza.

"Bitch!" I blushed.

"He should take his clothes off," said Marie, who I reckoned was probably the biggest of the lot. "Then he won't dirty them."

"He can come on me next time," exclaimed Annette Wilson.

"And then me!" shouted Dana Mills, the milkman's daughter.

"I think we should strip off completely," encouraged Liza who was obviously out to make this as memorable an occasion as possible.

The girls agreed and my ecstatic penis was overjoyed to find itself in the glorious company of 35 naked women!

"And now it is time for Robert to size up the situation," giggled Liza.

I was given a tape measure and a pencil with paper to write down my findings. I began with Liza, whose nipples were hard and erect and who kept grabbing hold of my penis. Then I moved on to Annette and Dana. It was Dana who first offered me a bribe.

"Add three inches and I'll fuck you," she said quietly.

"Alright," I agreed. Marie stuck her tits in my mouth before I had a chance to measure them, and then she fell to the floor with me on top of her, chewing and biting and sucking with all the energy I had. Then I felt arms and breasts pulling me away from her as the rest of the women allowed their impatience to take control of them. Soon I was immersed in tit flesh and I had no idea which breast belonged to who as my senses were assaulted by a variety of nipples and bosoms all forcing their way either into my mouth or trying to surround my throbbing penis with their bountiful goodness.

Soon I felt the come rising in my tool again and I orgasmed, not caring where the seed fell. I shook and moaned as the breasts continued to do their work, indifferent to my needs or desires. Finally, I forced myself back onto my feet and I briefly surveyed the scene.

Seven of the women had my come either on their faces or on their breasts! The rest had obviously gotten tired of waiting because they were getting it on with each other in a scene that would have looked tremendous in the days of Nero's orgies. Everywhere women were sucking each other's cunts and tits and having

We happen to think that Sylvia is one of the most beautiful models who has posed for GAME, what with her full-lipped, scarlet mouth, her streaky blond hair, and her big-boobed, sensuous body. Sylvia might just have been the perfect GAME model, at least lookswise, if she hadn't had a certain complaint. The complaint had nothing to do with posing for GAME. It had to do with Sylvia's sexlife in general, but she took the opportunity of her GAME photo-shoot to sound off about her "pet peeve" to any of the men who might eventually see her nude body in print.

"I think I have a great body," Sylvia said, shrugging. "If anyone thinks I'm being too conceited when I say that, too fucking bad! I love it when men enjoy my naked body—either by looking at it or touching it, or by making love to it all the way. My complaint is just that men seem to pay too much attention to my tits, because they are big. What about my cute little pussy, guys? It seems that most of you are so busy staring at my big tits, or feeling them with your hands, or sucking on them with your mouths, that you forget all about that hot little hole between my legs!

Diana

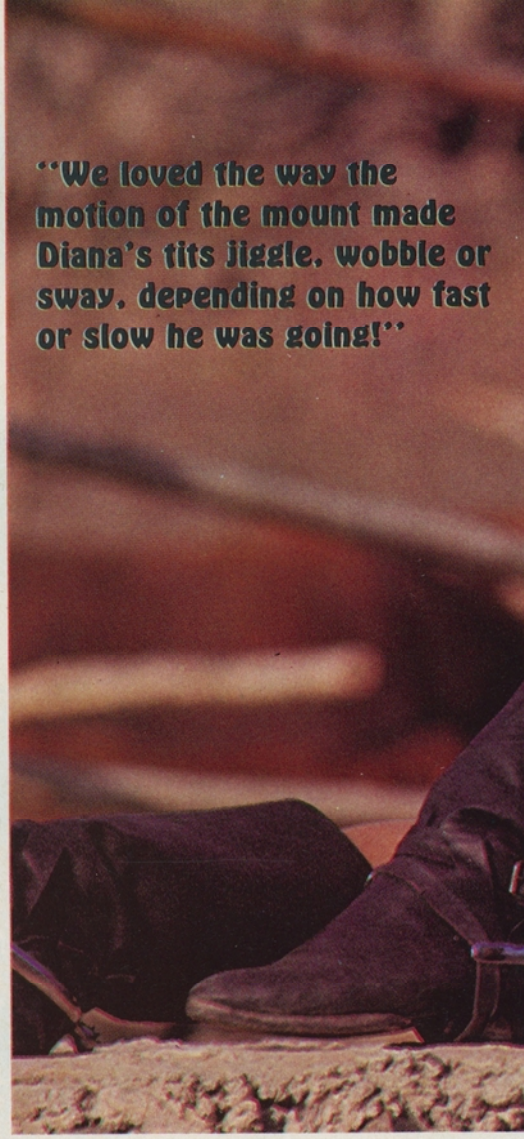
Well-Mounted Mounds

It seems that a lot of rich chicks are riding enthusiasts and belong to the "horsey set." Diana, an Ivy League coed who's not only worth a million dollars but also possesses a succulent, mouth-watering pair of million-dollar tits, not only gets off on horses—she also gets off on horseback!

Somewhat of an exhibitionist, Diana was in favor of showing all in GAME—as long as she could do it atop her favorite mount. Hey, we didn't really care how or where Diana chose to reveal her hot young bod, as long as she did. And we, along with our photog, quickly realized the advantages of having Diana stripped and astraddle a stallion.

First of all, the horse's motion made Diana's tits jiggle, wobble or sway, depending on how fast of slow he was going. Second of all, Diana herself admitted that horseback riding in and of itself made her horny!

WorldMags.net



"We loved the way the motion of the mount made Diana's tits jiggle, wobble or sway, depending on how fast or slow he was going!"

"Don't you realize that's one of the main reasons why we sheltered, inhibited little rich gals love to ride horses?" she asked. "It gives great clitoral stimulation, and you can get off without touching yourself or even being aware of what is happening. I don't care how many boyfriends I have—horseback riding is still my favorite way to get off!"

Diana was a most cooperative model, posing in every way we asked for, and in other ways she thought up by herself. But when we asked if she could alert us as to exactly when she was getting off, Diana refused, albeit graciously. "That's very private. In fact, sometimes I don't even realize it's happening until it's almost over. What can I tell you—I was brought up in a very repressed atmosphere. I'm trying to break out of it, but sharing orgasms on horseback with strangers is a long way off."

Hey, as long as you get off, Diana, it's fine with us!

c. Donna Summer
d. Dolly Parton

18. What famous scoundrel sent an amputated breast to Scotland Yard with a note that read: "Hope you like this. I ate the other one"?
a. Vincent Van Gogh
b. Jack the Ripper
c. Mack the Knife
d. Dr. Crippen

19. Which of the following are not necessarily vegetables?
a. Pumpkins
b. Squash
c. Gourds
d. Turnips
e. Garbanzos

20. In the vast majority of women, the left breast is slightly larger than the right one.
a. True
b. False

21. On the average, which group of women are best-endowed, bustwise?
a. Blue-eyed blondes
b. Brown-eyed blondes
c. Blue-eyed brunettes
d. Brown-eyed brunettes

ANSWERS:

1. b. Blaze Starr, Chesty Morgan and Carol Doda were famous women strippers known for their huge endowments.

2. False. Breast size has nothing to do with how a woman responds in bed.

3. c. 36-B is the most common bra size.

4. c. "Lungs" is one of the many slang terms for breasts.

5. b. Mongoloid women—that is, all the Oriental groups—are built smallest in the tit department. But since they're small-boned and short in stature, this makes sense, right?

6. b. Although the bra was invented and used in France at the dawn of this century, it didn't become popular here until World War I. With many men gone, the women had to do the industrial work, and the old-fashioned corset was too restricting. Thus, the birth of the bra.

7. c. Negroid women are said to possess bigger breasts in general than their white-or yellow-skinned sisters. On the island of Samoa in the South Seas anthropologists have reported sighting boobs so long and pendulous that the women toss them over their shoulders to keep them out of the way while working. This over-development has been spotted in both young and old women and has been reported among black women in South America and Africa.

8. a. Only silicone injections or implants really work to make a woman's bust bigger. Those hormone creams that you see advertised are rip-offs. Exercises can improve the muscle tone of the pectorals underlying the mammaries, but technically will not enlarge the breast tissue itself. Constant rubbing of the area will make the nips bigger—while massaging is going on. As for magnifying glasses, they'll help to create an optical illusion if you're really that desperate.

9. a. Many women report sexy feelings from breast-feeding, and some do reach climax while nursing. It's not true that nursing a baby will "ruin" a woman's breasts, especially if she is young and in good physical shape. Any woman can nurse, no matter how small her breasts; size has nothing to do with the amount of milk produced. As for nursing being for grown men, some fathers do find it sensuous to vie with junior for a turn at the teat.

10. d. Jane Russell had this dubious distinction after she was launched into super-stacked stardom by Howard Hughes in the film, The Outlaw. The sight of Jane's jugs half-exposed under a disheveled blouse drove an entire nation of tit-crazy males wild. In Spellman's eyes, this was a Cardinal sin.

11. c. Pat Nixon is the proud possessor of two pancakes. Happy and Betty underwent mastectomies several years ago.

12. c. Mae West said it, and according to the legions of men who made it with her, it's true.

13. c. Areola is the proper term; the plural is areolae. In case you're curious about the other words, auricle refers to the outer part of the ear; aureole is a halo; and for you retards, oriole is a songbird.

14. b. The word Amazon means "missing a breast," and the Amazons cut off their right ones so as to make better use of their main weapon—the bow and arrow.

15. b. If you want to see big, British, mostly-bared boobs, tune in to Benny Hill. This BBC import zany humor is spiced with plenty of thigh, tit and ass. Fans swear it's the sexiest show ever aired on the boob tube.

16. b. Walking barefoot across a field of tits is said to be the sleeping male's favorite. Talk about bumpy terrain!

17. d. Any tit-lover who hasn't yet drooled over Dolly's humongous pair has a treat in store. Talk about a great set of lungs—Dolly's ought to be a national monument.

18. b. The dastardly deed was done by Jack the Ripper, one of history's most outrageous psychopathic killers. To this day, they're not sure who he really was.

19. c. "Gourds" is another slang term for breasts, and it's about time some use was

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

May had grown up with Billy, a likeable fellow who before leaving for his new job in Saudi Arabia, made her a promise. That he would send for her to come out to be his bride. The last night they spent together was unforgettable, she felt so electrified it was as if she were struck by lightning.

Weeks went by...months...years, without any word from Billy.

Now engaged to Martin, she could not get Billy out of her mind. When he returned from out of the blue expecting to make his claim, May did her best to avoid him. May tells researcher OLGA VOIGHT what it was like to be struck twice.

"Hello May, guess who?"

"Who's that?"

"Aw, come on, don't tell me you've forgotten me already, and I thought I was something special in your life."

"Look, stop fooling, I'm just going out...Who...Oh, I know, Billy, Billy Chambers!"

"Correct. Hey, don't go out without me. I was hoping we might have a date tonight."

"Sorry Billy, I'm spoken for. I'm engaged now, Martin will be here any minute. How are you anyway, when did you get back from Saudi?"

"This morning and I thought I'd call you up right away to see how you were. We had a great week before I left didn't we?"

"Yes we did, but you did promise you would write to me, trust you, not a word, in over two years."

"Sorry May, you know me...anyway I thought we had an understanding."

"Understanding! Billy we did, but you've been away for over two years and I've not had the slightest response from you in spite of everything you said. I'm 24 years of age now and I certainly wasn't going to wait forever hoping you would call."

Billy and I had been very close just before he went off to work in Saudi Arabia. He was two years older than me and we had grown up in the same street. During our teens he had taken me out a few times but I had never been anything special as he had plenty of other girlfriends, but he was always good fun to be with.

I had not seen him for quite a long time when right out of the blue he called to tell me he had accepted a job in Saudi Arabia and would be off at the end of the week for a 3-year contract. That was 2 years ago.

In the week before he left we met every night. He told me that he had always thought I was very special and that I had grown up over the years into a superb woman, with a really fantastic figure. Billy had always been attracted to my large bust almost from the moment it first developed. I'd let him play around a little but there had never been any serious sex between us.

Somehow during that week he seemed to have changed to a more mature, sensible young man. One night we drove to a quiet spot and were sitting in his car. I allowed him to play with my breasts as I was feeling very close to him. At that time they were a firm 42". After caressing them for about n hour he had got us both feeling horny as hell. I was still a virgin but time was running out fast. Taking out his penis Billy rubbed it between my breasts then urged me to suck it for him. It was a heady experience, when he ejaculated into my mouth it was as if he had bubbled over with love for me. It was delicious.

Billy vowed his true love and said he wanted me for his wife and that as soon as he had settled down in his new job he would send for me to come out and join him. I was swept off my feet. When he suggested we spend his last night together at a mote I was ready and eager.

Our night at the motel was fantastic. I was 22 years old, a big reluctant virgin just waiting to let it all go.

Billy's sexual appetite and stamina was amazing. We made love all throughout the night as he introduced me to aspects of sex I'd never even dreamed of.

After a tearful farewell and a string of promises he left the country.

For some months I waited hopefully without hearing from him. Gradually it dawned on me I never would. I had been used.

As time went by my wounds healed. I went out with a few fellows, and then two months age I met Martin and we became engaged intending to marry in three months time. We were now sleeping together regularly. Martin was obsessed with my breasts which were now a full 44". I got enormous satisfaction from his attention to them. Even so, our lovemaking seemed to lack the excitement of that night I spent with Billy. Often, while making love I would think of him. Now here he was, returned, claiming the right to go out with me.

"No, I'm sorry Billy, it's out of the question. I'm meeting martin. No you don't know him. Anyway, I wish you well and hope you have a good leave. Nice to hear from you." I was deliberately brusque. I put the phone down decisively but my knees were shaking. My God, fancy getting in touch with me after all this time!

Thinking about Billy turned my stomach over. Her certainly sounded his old confident self.

The phone rang again. It was Martin.

"May, I'll have to put off seeing you tonight. I've just had a call from my sister that mother's had a bad fall and I think I'd better pop over to see them just to reassure them. Do you mind love?"

"No of course not, darling. Go ahead!"

My parents were out and as I sat vacantly in front of the TV set I suddenly felt lonely and vulnerable. The call from Billy had made me feel uneasy.

The doorbell rang. I went to the door.

"May! I thought you were going out."

Billy rushed in, swept me up in his arms and kissed me.

"Oh, it is good to see you. I'd brought a few presents and thought I'd drop them off while you were out. I never expected to see you. You look wonderful, more beautiful than I remember and Wow!" He twirled me around. "What a fantastic figure!"

Billy stood with his arms around me, smiling openly and excitedly, his personality was infectious. My word, he did look handsome with his deep tan.

"Why didn't you go out like you said?"

"Martin had to go and see his mother at short notice."

"Well, I am sorry but perhaps you could come out for a meal with me now."

I hesitated for a moment.

The impact that Billy made swept me off my feet.

"OK."

"Great! Hey, I haven't given you the present I brought you from Saudi."

He brought out a long solid gold box chain necklace and put it around my neck. It fell between my cleavage.

Billy ran his hands along the chain, at the same time allowing his hand to rest on my bust. The effect was electrifying, instantly I felt a surge of desire. He cupped his hands on either side of my breast, making the chain fall between them.

I crushed myself to him impulsively and kissed him.

"Thank you Billy, it's really lovely."

Putting his arms around me he drew me close and kissed me deeply and sensuously, his tongue searching for mine. Without hesitation I responded. I could feel his fingers fumbling for the zipper at the back of my dress.

"No Billy!...Martin wouldn't like...!"

Billy subdued my protestations with passionate kisses that were beginning to inflame me. It was really impossible for me to resist him. He continued kissing me and drawing off my dress, until I was down to my bra and panties. Pulling down my bra straps he gasped with admiration as my huge as my huge breasts were revealed.

"May! May darling, you are bigger and more beautiful than I remembered." Taking one breast in each hand he began gently kissing them then gradually concentrating on the plump fruity nipples, sucking on them strongly.

Pleasure surged through me as I lay back and enjoyed his sharp teeth lightly raking over the dark tissue of my erect nipples.

Pleasure surged through me as I lay back and enjoyed his sharp teeth lightly raking over the dark tissue of my erect nipples.

He crushed the massive mounds into huge pillows and buried his face into the soft flesh.

"Oh May, I've dreamed out you night after night while I've been away. I've needed you so badly. I've dreamed of the moment when I would come back and claim you as mine again.

For some long time Billy just caressed and enjoyed my breasts. He seemed in no hurry to make love to me although by now I was aflame and needed him desperately. My panties were soaking wet, almost involuntarily I kept opening my thighs and drawing back my legs in invitation. Still he kept me waiting. Peeling off my pants he lept over me and began searching with his tongue for my sensitive clitoris. As he found my special spot I squealed with exquisite pleasure. Shock wave after shock wave washed over me as his tongue flicked the inflamed nodule.

I pulled his head deeply into my crotch.

"Oh Billy darling, why did you ever go away...OOOooooh!" Excruciating sensations came and went until finally a massive wave of pleasure triggered off the most stupendous orgasm I had ever known. Martin had never excited me like this.

Hurriedly, Billy stripped off his clothing. He looked magnificent standing over me, beautifully tanned, his penis rigid with excitement.

Dropping down between my legs he gently pressed them back then, resting his shaft against my slit he tormented me for several minutes. As I felt his hot pulsating member throbbing against me it was more than I could take. I screamed, "Come into me, Billy, please!"

Still he held back until I was almost crying with frustration before he plunged deeply into me with great force. He pounded into me like a young stallion, jolting my body with every thrust. Soon I began arching my back to receive his magnificent shaft.

With a grunting roar he came, shooting in painful spasms. As I felt him climax I shrieked to another fantastic orgasm.

We lay together caressing on the carpet. It was quite safe as my parents were not due back for some hours. I was almost asleep in Billy's arms when suddenly the door opened and in walked Martin. We were all too stunned to move.

"What the Hell! I went to my mother's and she was OK so I came straight over, the back door was open so I came in and this is what I find!"

Billy lept up and began dressing.

"Look sport, there is an explanation."

Martin stormed out.

"I don't want to know!"

"I hope your readers don't think I'm too conceited, but it's true—I'm in love with my own tits," says sultry, dark-haired Jenna. "Sometimes I just lie around stroking and playing with them for hours. It's such an erotic feeling; it's soothing and stimulating at the same time. I like to pour baby oil on my tits and rub it in with my hands.

"I guess it's only natural for one thing to lead to another. After playing with my tits, rubbing the firm mounds with oil and getting the nipples all hard and aroused, the excitement spreads downwards. My belly and loins get all warm and achey, and then a slow fire builds between my legs. I squeeze my legs together, then spread them—squeeze tight and spread open—until I can feel the slippery lube flowing out and wetting the insides of my thighs.

"I pinch my nipples and squeeze my tits hard as I slap my thighs together and bounce my ass up and down on the bed. I can feel my clit poking out all hard and throbbing, and my slapping and squeezing legs creates enough friction to finally make me cry out as an intense orgasm rips through me. I can feel the spasms all the way up to my nipples, and when I climax, my tits come too, I swear it! If anyone doubts it, they can come over and see for themselves!"

WHAT GOES ON INSIDE

THE GIANT MAMMAE?

"We think of the breast as a beautiful adornment, but it is much, much more than that."

The breast, one of the most visible signs of femininity, has in contemporary society become little more than a cosmetic prop for the female ego. But nature originally intended it to be more than that. It was once not so much a thing of beauty as a source of nourishment for man. Now, merely a source of aesthetic nourishment. At one point in Man's history, the survival of the human race depended on the female breast. For without it infants could not have survived, and hence, neither could man.

For the primitive woman, pregnancy was the normal state of affairs. Her function was to bear children and feed them while the men hunted. A woman who was barren was of no use to the tribe at all except as a beast of burden, unless she was able to produce milk in spite of her sterility. Breasts continually produce milk during the years of pregnancy and even after. So important was the milk producing abilities of the female breast, that the woman who could produce milk even though she had no children of her own, was a valuable asset to any primitive tribe. She could care for the infants of a deceased mother, or those of a mother who, for one reason or another, found it impossible to produce milk herself.

The breast is actually nothing more than a modified and infinitely complex sweat gland. Both male and female children when they are born lactate. Which is to say that they produce milk in much the same way their mothers will feed them. The milk is known as "witches' milk", the name having its origin in superstition. This phenomenon is relatively easy to explain. It is the result of hormonal stimulation from the mother whose glands are functioning overtime during pregnancy. The hormones' effect soon wear off once the child leaves the mother's body. The gland that is responsible for lactation becomes dormant in the female child until around the age of twelve and in the normal male, forever. When the female's ovaries mature, and under the impetus of the hormones they secrete, the breast once again becomes active and begins to mature and develop. Fat deposits—the breast is composed mostly of fatty tissue —are laid down. The breast swells, the nipples grow and the areola around them —a kind of halo—assume a darker pigmentation.

The glandular construction of the breast is by far its most interesting and complex component. It has seventeen self-sufficient milk-producing units. But that is not standard for all women—some women have more and some fewer. The average is seventeen. Each of these units can be compared, relative to its shape, to a berry bush. Pursuing this analogy, the multi-thousand microscopie alveoli present in this structure can be compared to berries on the bush. The almost invisible droplets of milk they produce travel through arterial units comparable to the branches of a tree or shrub and into nodules just behind the nipples. These nodules are known as milk ducts. From the ducts, the milk travels into the main conduits and from there out through the nipple. There are an average number of seventeen main conduits. The fatty tissue in the breast forms an insulation and kind of protection for these extremely delicate structures. The muscle tissue in the breast certainly does not compose the greater bulk of the breast, but it does serve a vital function nevertheless. This muscle tissue, or connective tissue, binds the breast together. And these fibers attach to the chest wall, forming a kind of internal bra.

The functioning of the breast is controlled by its hormones. Just before the period of menstruation these hormones cause the breast to swell and become extremely sensitive. The period of greatest hormonal activity in the breast is during pregnancy. This activity begins to subside immediately after pregnancy. The activity is stimulated initially by the hormonal secretion of the placenta which links baby and woman. A hormone called estrogen (sometimes used in the treatment of cancer) stimulates growth of the milk-duct system. And a hormone called progestin spurs the development and numerical growth of the alveoli. The blood vessels also increase in size to accommodate increased blood flow, the increased flow being important to the transportation of hormones. There is also a concommitant increase in the weight of the breast—in fact it almost doubles in weight and blue veins close to the surface become visible. After conception as the date of birth draws nearer and the hormone secretion of the placenta stimulates more and more a good deal of sexual pleasure. This effect can be observed in animals. If anyone has ever watched a cat suckling its kittens, they will have noticed that the cat seems quite content, purring and opening and closing its paws. This is because the animal is experiencing a great deal of sexual pleasure—the source of that pleasure being contractions in the womb. It seems to be nature's way of rewarding the mother that suckles her offspring.

During the initial period of lactation, each breast produces just under a pint of milk a day as we previously mentioned. This is, of course, ample for a new-born normal sized infant. But as the baby grows, so must milk production in the breast. In some women the increase may be from a pint up to as much as three quarts a day. And in addition to the change in the quantity of the milk, there is also a corresponding change in its quality. As the infant requires more calcium for the development of its bones, the mother must supply this increased demand. And so, the calcium content of the mother's milk increases dramatically.

Usually, after about two months, the mother no longer feels that the infant needs to be suckled and so she begins weening it. Lacking the stimulus provided by suckling, all the glands that were responsible for the production and transportation of milk again begin to go dormant, although the breast and all the attendant glands could go on producing up to six months. After this, the breast again resumes its normal weight. The normal weight being about six ounces.

The breast disease most feared by women is cancer. But aside from this, there are few other diseases to which the breast is susceptible, primarily because it is mostly fatty tissue. Women do, however, often worry about the size of their breasts. There are few reputable surgeons who would be willing to make a silicone implant to increase breast size, because the operation is fraught with post-operative complications. A most feasible and safer operation now employed on women who are concerned over too small breasts, is one where tissue from the woman's own body is implanted in the breast. Fatty tissue from this operation can be taken from the buttocks, thighs, or abdomen.

Correcting unaesthetically large breasts involves the reverse of this operation. Fatty tissue is removed from the breast, the nipple is repositioned, and the breast is reshaped and then sewn into the proper place just over the rib.

Cancer of the breast is a very serious danger and is perhaps the greatest cause of cancer death in women. Fortunately, if cancer of the breast is treated early enough, the chances of survival for the woman who is inflicted with this dread disease are greatly increased. Every woman should have a medical check for breast cancer at lease once every six months. But even still, every woman should take the precaution of self-examination in addition to medical examination. With practice, a woman can often become more astute at detecting lumps in her breast—a possible sign of cancer—than a trained physician. Lying down with a pillow under her left shoulder, she should apply pressure to her left breast with the finger of ther right hand, covering the entire area of the breast. She should do the same with the right breast, a pillow under her right shoulder and using the fingers of her left hand. It would be advisable for her to do this at least once a month. The best time for such an examination—because it is an easy time to remember, and because of the condition of the breast at this time—is several days after menstruation. It is also advisable to watch for any depressions in the breast. Cancer, because of its effects on other structures in the breast, can cause a slight hallowing. A movement of the nipple from its normal position is also a danger sign.

Detection of a lump should not necessarily be a cause for alarm. In one out of three cases, such a lump is benign. But because of that one chance in three that it might be malignant, she should consult a doctor immediately.

If cancer is detected early enough, there are several possible operations which offer a survival rate of at least five years in eighty-five percent of the cases.

When the woman goes through menopause—a condition commonly referred to as her "change of life"—the changes in her body that occurred during puberty are reversed. Some of the fatty deposits in the breast will deteriorate, but certainly not all. And the glandular structure will whither to the point where it is almost non-existent. In total—the breast will shrink.

Although our proclivity is to think of the breast as a beautiful adornment of the female body, it is much more than that. And although the breast seems to have lost its functional status—that of a vital tool in the perpetuation of the species—we have in the past few years witnessed a tremendous new interest in breast feeding. It seems to be part of the "return to nature" trend. Our only comment: There is no reason why a thing of beauty cannot also serve a vital human funtion. □

Brie is chic-looking, with her beautiful hair and striking features—and she has a body that'll knock your eyes out. She's long and slim and perfectly proportioned—except for her ultra firm, ultra round and ultra large tits! It's little wonder that she serves as a model for her sculptor husband, Claude. Yet, Brie has a big complaint.

"You know, sometimes I feel that I am considered just another piece of sculpture by my husband! He uses our loft as a studio as well as a gallery, and people are constantly coming and going. I wouldn't mind, except that Claude's specialty is sculpting nude women. I'm his model, and so half the time I'm lying around in the nude. It's no wonder that many of the visitors to the gallery think I am a lifelike sculpture instead of a real live woman. but it's worse when my own husband seems to feel that way too!

"I am tired of him looking at me from across the room while he makes his sketches and then his plaster cast. I keep my body in such good condition for him. I work out, I sunbathe to get a tan, I get waxings and pedicures. I even trim my pubic bush! But all he sees when he looks at me is a marble woman—the woman of stone which he will eventually turn me into.

"He says my body is beautiful, and he especially loves my breasts. But lately the only way he touches me is with his eyes. I want to feel his hands all over me. I want to feel his lips kissing my nipples to hardness and then traveling down my firm belly to my lonely, aching pussy. I want to feel his tongue slithering all over my wet, scented folds—and then I want to feel his hard manhood filling me and thrusting me to ecstasy and back while he sucks my pointing nipples!

"It was the famous sculptor Pygmalion who kissed his marble statue of a woman and brought her to life. In the same way, I want my husband to bring me to life with his hands and his tongue and his prick. I am hoping that maybe these nude photos of me, along with the words, will help Claude realize that I am a flesh-and-blood woman whose body yearns not to be looked at, but to be loved!"

20. a. According to researchers, the left breast of most women is a teeny bit bigger than the right one. If you don't believe it, check it out for yourself.

21. b. In a survey of European women carried out by French anthropologist Max Bartels, it was found that girls with light hair and dark eyes had the biggest tits. Next biggest were blondes with blue eyes, then blue-eyed brunettes, and finally brunettes with dark eyes. The survey included over a thousand women, which really isn't a large sample. However, we'd like to point out that Chesty Morgan, the world's most famous super-stacked stripper, was a dark-eyed blonde.

SCORING

Give yourself three points for every correct answer. After adding them up, look below to see where you place on the T.Q. curve.

3 - 21: We hate to say it, but you're a bit of a jerk when it comes to jugs. Still, you've already learned a lot by taking our test, so instead of a dunce cap, you get the boob prize.

24 - 42: You're quite bright when it comes to boobs, but there's room for improvement. Since you have a real "feel" for the subject matter, a bit of delving around in this weighty area could turn you into a true tit-man.

45 - 63: Congratulations! You're in the genius class when it comes to gourds. You've obviously applied yourself well at the school of hard knockers, and your cup of knowledge is full to overflowing. You definitely deserve the "Golden Globe" award for your outstanding grasp of titology.

I rubbed my saliva-soaked dick between those creamy mounds. As I pushed in and out, Susan was amused how the head of my cock poked out from between her tits, peeked at her, and then retreated into its soft home. As I worked, Susan lifted her head and pushed a pillow behind her back to prop herself up and gave me my "treat." She bent her head toward her breasts and licked the head of my cock every time it poked through. I pushed deeper, allowing her to get more of me into her mouth. She managed to get the entire head of my cock in her mouth between strokes. The excitement of this new trick of hers caused me to pump faster and harder. What a thrill it was! By now, Susan had me well in her mouth. The combination of tit fuck/blow job, new to me, was really something. I moaned and kept on pumping. She wrapped her hands around my ass, pushing me even further into her mouth. Suddenly, I exploded, sending a shower of cum over her breasts, arms and face. She licked all the sweet cream off her lips as I fell back on the bed.

"Hey! You liked that, huh?" She laughed. "Wait 'til next week!"

BEST BREAST EVER!

MAGAZINE

GAME is the special magazine for people who like to play games and who love sex with the big breast. Every other month, GAME brings you the world's most humongous boobs photographed in our exceptional erotic style by award-winning photographers. GAME brings you intimate interviews with lovers who describe their greatest sexual encounters in minute detail. GAME brings you informative articles that are the culmination of years of research. Best of all, GAME brings you the alternative to the run-of-the-mill magazines that litter the newsstands.

And ladies enjoy GAME, too. You don't have to hide GAME under the mattress, you can share it with her. Of course, you can still enjoy GAME on your own because it's written to be easier to read with one hand.

1 year (6 issues) . . . . . $24.00 2 years (12 issues) . . . $48.00

Rates apply to U.S., U.S. Possessions, Canada and APO-FPO addresses only. All other countries add six ($6) dollars per year to prices.

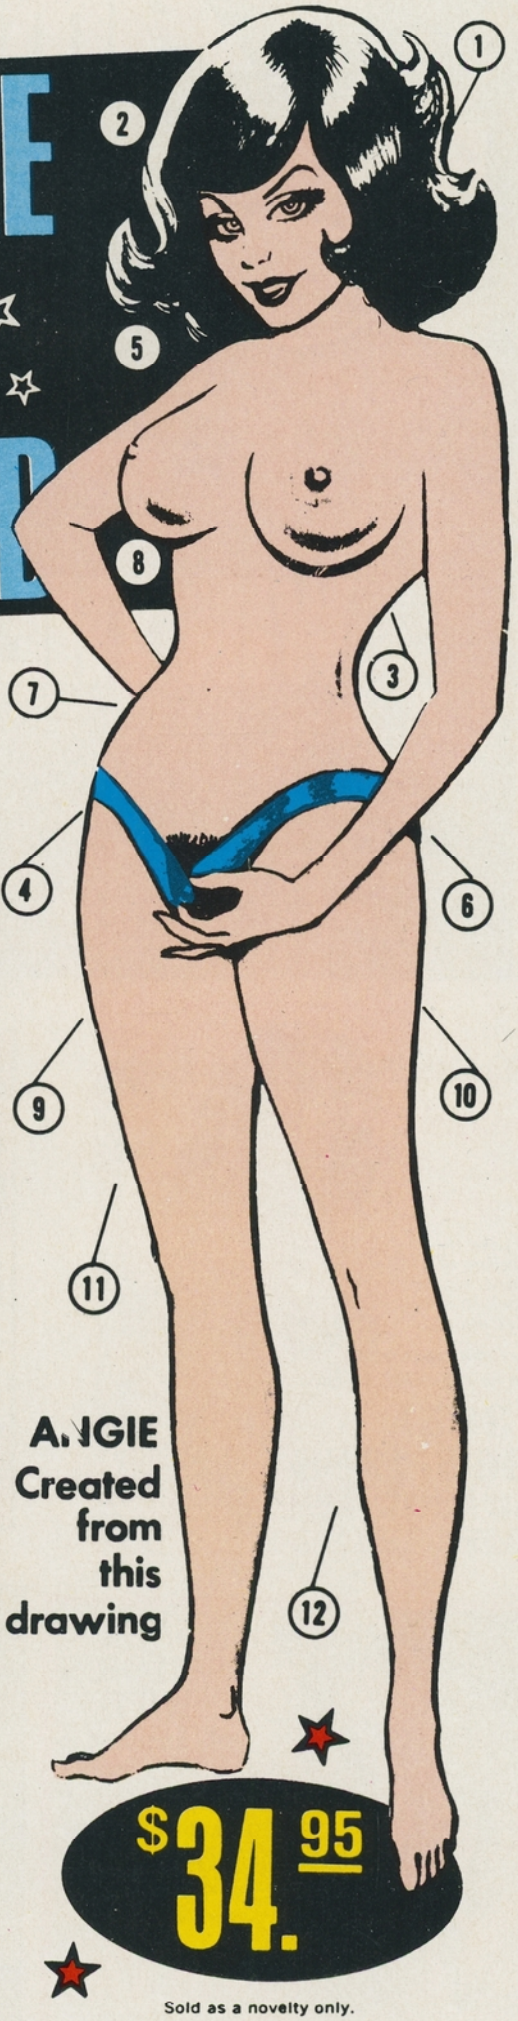
THE MOST LIFE-LIKE LIFE SIZE FEMALE DOLL EVER CREATED



"ANGIE"

Angie the Doll, 10 years ahead of her time!

Introducing the next best thing to a woman — Angie, absolutely the most "humanlike" life-like doll ever created. Disregard all other ads you've ever read about any other doll because Angie has them all beat by far! Angie is at least ten years ahead of her time. Besides having an ironclad money-back guarantee, Angie comes complete with the following extremely realistic features:

"New Design" Makes All Other Dolls Obsolete

NATURAL, beautiful hair implanted on Angie's head. The most realistic, soft, cuddly hair (run your fingers through it) ever to be put on any doll (guaranteed natural) (1). Beautifully shaped head and body: 34-22-36. (2)

Open Mouth — DEEP THROAT ACTION

Very pretty face and head with soft kissable lips that part, including a throat that's 7" deep, to allow Angie to give a man better deep throat than most women! (3) Soft, fleshy, vinyl skin that warms to the human touch, and is more lifelike than ever (4). The most lifelike, soft genital area ever to be created on a female doll including a penetrable 7" deep vagina,

Human-Like Features DRESS HER UP

The "clearcut" feature that you definitely can make love to Angie, because of the above features, and that nothing is left to the imagination. (Other doll ads in the past have often times offered a doll that either doesn't exist or just isn't what the ad says.) (6) You can dress Angie up anyway you like. She is 5'4" tall and wears a similar size to that of a real woman of similar height. You can make Angie trim or plump depending on how much air she is inflated with (7).

BUILT IN FEMALE ORGAN DETAILED BREASTS

The most durable vinyl skin ever created for a lifesize doll, with no exceptions (8). The most realistic soft, spongy breasts complete with nipples you can nibble on, ever to be put on a lifesize doll. Angie's breasts (size 34C) cannot be described, for you must see them to appreciate their beauty (9).

Remote Control — Electronic

Vibrating Option — You may purchase a deluxe vibrating attachment for Angie so any part of her body or mouth can vibrate at will (remote controlled) (10).

Bikini Option — You may purchase a deluxe bikini ensemble for Angie (11).

Sensibly price compared to the "unlifelike" dolls you'll pay top dollar for (12).

Two weeks delivery with cashier's check, money order, (Personal checks must await bank clearance.)

Add $3.00 for Super Rush or Airmail. FIRST TIME AVAILABLE First Time Ever Offered

Why wait? You won't find a lifesize doll anywhere that's more like a real woman than Angie at a similar price, and we guarantee it. We designed her. We manufactured her. We imported her, and most important, we guarantee her. "Angie— Order now.

ANGIE Created from this drawing
